Indiana Department of Workforce Development Commissioner Helps Kick-off 6th Congressional District Job-Fair

Muncie – Today Indiana Department of Workforce Development Commissioner Ron Stiver helped to kick-off the 6th Congressional District Job-Fair with Congressman Mike Pence.

“It is an honor to be here today with Congressman Mike Pence. By helping connect Hoosiers in east-central Indiana with employers, job-fairs such as this are an important tool in supporting regional economic growth,” said Commissioner Stiver.

The 6th Congressional District Job-Fair was co-sponsored by Congressman Mike Pence, the Indiana Department of Workforce Development and East Central Indiana Workforce Investment Board. Over 80 Indiana businesses participated with the expectation to meet and identify potential Hoosier workers.
